

ATWELL ARTS CENTRE

Lunchtime in the Gallery is on the 2nd Wednesday every month from February to November (12 noon - 2pm)

Bookings essential - $20 ($15 for pensioners), light lunch included

Put these dates in your diary – we'll keep you up to date with details as they firm up

2009 Programme

February 11	Ron Bradfield Jr. Manager, Regional & Indigenous Development, Artsource	Connection to Country – a Shared Experience
March 11	Greg James Sculptor	Thinking Time
April 8	Rob Jeffreys Writer, Playright and Poet	Frame of Mind - a book of poems inspiring images by visual artists
May 13	Stewart Scambler Master Potter	A Wood Fired View of the Land
June 10	Pam Brittain Visual Artist	The Heidelberg School of Painting
July 8	Patrick Cordier The Fun Magician, Music and Comedy presenter on 90.5FM	Putting the Fun in Magic
August 12	Tim White Principal Percussionist, WASO	The Rhythmic Arts
September 9	Kim Fitzpatrick Master Art Glass Craftsman	Details TBA
October 14	TBA
November 11	Erica Smyth Project Manager & Fundraiser for Royal Flying Doctor Service	Red Dust in Her Veins – Women of the Pilbara

Near corner of Canning Highway & North Lake Road, Alfred Cove ... Plenty of free parking ... on bus route ... air-conditioned gallery

Give us your suggestion and you'll get free entry if we adopt your idea

... and don't forget to tell your friends ...

