Historic Bolganup Homestead

Settled by the Faulkners 100 years ago, Bolganup Homestead is at the heart of a beautiful old farm.

A restful rural hideaway, Bolganup adjoins the Porongurup National Park. It offers quality, fully equipped, self-contained accommodation in the three wings of the Homestead and in the Ravine Cottage - ideal for couples, families and friends.

Enjoy misty mornings, starry nights, cosy log fires and stunning views. Watch kangaroos from the verandah, bushwalk for birds and wildflowers, go wine tasting, or stroll down the lane to the Porongurup Shop for coffee, lunch and provisions.
