

IONA PRESENTATION COLLEGE MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Iona Presentation College has made available music scholarships for selected students who would like to study Band or Orchestral instruments. There are a limited number of scholarships available and these will be awarded on the basis of ability and potential. The purpose of providing the scholarships is to foster the development of the College Bands and Ensembles. Students learning any musical instrument, including voice are encouraged to audition.

Music scholarships' offered at Iona Presentation College are awarded for the full term of the student's time at the College.

The Scholarships' include:

Presentation Sisters' Scholarship (financial hardship)

Sister Margaret Mary Eaton Music Scholarship

Sister Patricia Downey Music Scholarship

Successful candidates are selected on the basis of motivation, proven ability to commit, innate musical ability and potential. To apply, complete this Scholarship Application Form and, if possible, please enclose a reference from any previous music teacher you have had. Applications close on Wednesday 27 October 2010. Shortly after, Parents/Guardians will be contacted with a confirmation letter and audition schedule for their child. The Auditions will be held at Iona Presentation College Music Department on Thursday 4 November 2010. Parents/Guardians are more than welcome to be present at the audition.

Students are required to play at least one piece of music, take a short perception/aural skills test, and interview.
