Beach Leave Permission 2010

Years 11 and 12 students may take unsupervised beach leave to Cottesloe Beach only if they:

- Have written permission from their parents and sign an agreement to abide by beach leave conditions.

The following conditions also apply:

- Housemothers will check the conditions with the Cottesloe Surf Lifesaving Association. If surf/beach conditions are unsafe for swimming, students may not go to the beach.
- Girls may only go to Cottesloe Beach when it is patrolled by Surf Lifesavers.
- Girls must abide by all instructions and signs issued by the Surf Life Saving Club.
- Girls may only go to the beach in groups of four or more for a maximum of two hours.
- Girls will be bussed to and from the beach by a Housemother.
- Girls must apply sunscreen and take all precautions to prevent sunburn.
- If these conditions are not followed, future leave will not be granted.

Parents, please complete the permission slip below and return as soon as possible by fax or mail. Until we have received your written permission, your daughter may not take unsupervised beach leave.
