

Wings of Hope

Music and Lyrics ~ Jane Laws

(Theme song for On Aspiring, written by Wendy Campbell)

And I will keep on searching along the wings of hope,

Hearing only angels voices, fearing nothing in my way.

And I'll share with you my dreams, as my tears wash my pain away.

Along the wings of hope I fly today.

Where I am, it's not where I'm meant to be,

And this road I find me on isn't really me.

I must find a way, find a way to save me from myself.

I am letting go, and holding on to the wings of hope.

You may be the one who's taken all of my heart,

But the mountains and the stars have captured my soul.

I am drowning, drowning in a sea of fear and glory.

I am letting go, and holding on to the wings of hope.

I've learnt to trust the arms of a stranger,

I've known the summit glow, I've learnt to dare.

And in my prayers, I pray for strength and confidence.

I am letting go, and holding on to the wings of hope.

And I will keep on searching along the wings of hope,

Hearing only angels voices, fearing nothing in my way.

And I'll share with you my dreams, as my tears wash my pain away.

Along the wings of hope I fly today.
