TOTAL

MYC Membership Fees

The Club fees are separated into 4 sections as shown overleaf. The charges for all fees are kept as low as possible. Please note that all Membership applications are subject to ratification at the next Committee meeting.

Membership Fees

Every member falls into one of the levels of membership.

Only Life, Full, Family & Junior members are eligible to race and store boats at the club

Associate members have all rights except for voting, racing and boat storage.

Racing Fees

All skippers of yachts are charged a racing fee as per the “Racing Fee” table. This covers running costs for the support boats.

Storage Fees

A charge is levied to any member storing a boat at MYC.

All boats are stored at the owner’s complete risk. MYC Inc. is in no way responsible for any boat or parts thereof, and accepts no liability for any loss or damage. An Indemnity Form must be completed and returned with fee payment. No storage is permissible until this form has been submitted.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIP

Family membership includes all full time student dependants up to the age of 19. This age limit may be increased only by personal request to the Management Committee.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIP – Caps in place

A limit of $450 is placed on family membership.

- ♦ Race fees are included under this cap.
- ♦ Boat storage is not included in this limit.

Yachting Australia Silver Card

MYC Club policy is that all members who take part in sailing must hold a YA Silver Card. The cost of the silver card is included in the full membership fees.

The Silver Card system gives the bearer personal accident cover, as well as some other benefits. The details of these extras can be found at:

www.yachting.org.au and follow the links to “membership” or “National Membership Scheme.”

Please list the names and date of birth of members requiring a Silver Card.

All monies should be handed to the Secretary, or posted, along with this completed form, to:
